

MAY BE A FIGHT

When the Non-Union Button Makers Go to Work IN DETROIT THIS MORNING

Colby Held for Murder—Four Years for Blighting a Life—Mayor Pingree's Munificence—News of the State.

DETROIT, May 22.—Trouble is expected at the pearl button factory tomorrow morning when non-union girls will attempt to take the place of the locked out strikers. The girls on strike, encouraged by the support they are receiving from other unions, have decided to use physical force if necessary in their efforts to keep the new girls out. The police will be on hand to preserve order. Last week girls who were receiving $1.66 a week under the old system made $1.66 under the piece scale—27 cents a day.

BUILT FOR GUN.
Laid Down the Former to Blow Out His Brains with the Latter.

SAGINAW, May 22.—August Nelson lay on a bed in his home here yesterday afternoon reading the Bible. Then, laying aside the book while his wife was engaged in another part of the house, he procured a shotgun and discharged the contents of the weapon into his head. He was 47 years old and leaves a widow and eight daughters.

Mayor Pingree's Munificence.
ANN ARBOR, May 22.—Among the interested spectators at the Republican College league banquet was Mayor Hiram S. Pingree of Detroit, and among all the other prominent republicans present no one was more deeply impressed with the importance of the movement than he. Yesterday Mr. Pingree manifested his interest in the league by sending President Burke a check for $500.

Plint Pioneer Dead.
FLINT, May 22.—John Eggleston, who has resided in Plint township, this county, for upward of sixty years, is dead. Heart disease was the cause. He was 81 years of age and one of the first settlers of Genesee county. He leaves three sons, all prominent farmers of Plint township, and several daughters.

Colby Held for Murder.
MARINE CITY, May 22.—The inquest in the Cook murder case came to an end last night. A large number of witnesses were examined and a thorough search made for the facts in the case. The jury rendered a decision holding Colby, his fellow employee, for the crime.

A young man at Menden thought so much of his wife that he became madly jealous and accused her in his mind of all kinds of naughty and unwholesome things. To verify his suspicions he told her he was going away for several days. Of course she believed the little fiction. At midnight the jealous man returned, broke in the front door expecting to find an unsatisfactory state of affairs. His wife thought he was a burglar and pounded him almost to death with a stick of stove wood, and incidentally knocked all the jealousy out of him at the same time.

The sensational Van Dusen divorce case at Mr. Clemens has been drawing big houses from the start. Saturday a big rainbow, bewickered female on the witness stand was asked whether she thought Van Dusen a dangerous man around the house, etc. She replied in a buzz-saw basso that she didn't know how it was for his wife, but as for her, she wasn't afraid of the "fat Dusen" that ever walked. And then the audience laughed so long and loud that the sheriff broke his gavel in restoring quiet.

William Kenniston of Sullivan, Muskegon county, caused the arrest of his wife for unchastity. Just before she stepped into a cell to await her trial, she caused the arrest of her husband on a similar charge. After the worthy pair had enjoyed complete isolation in Muskegon's new jail for several days, they established a modus vivendi, paid the costs and were released to settle their troubles without the law's aid.

The boom edition of the Adrian Times contained eight pages descriptive of that lively little city, its churches, schools, charitable and educational institutions. It was an honor alike to Adrian and its enterprising publisher, Mrs. Thomas S. Applegate, the courageous little woman who took up her husband's pen, paste pot and shears when the Almighty called "30" on that genial journalist.

Kipling's school board is having a monkey-and-parrot time, being all mixed up in a schoolma'am's spat with the superintendent. The little teacher is so wrought up that in a letter to the board she referred to her superior as a "person," which, when translated from Kipling to the vernacular, is supposed to be uncomplimentary.

A couple of trappers who came into the "Roo" the other day sold their winter catch for $400. They caught 62 beaver, 2 bears and 2 cubs, 9 fishers, 20 martens, 15 minks and a number of muskrats. They say some kinds of fur-bearing animals are on the increase, particularly martens.
